SUNDAY HORSEWHIPPED

Evangelist Receives Bruises In His Tabernacle.

EXCITING INCIDENT OCCURS

Assailant, Former Inmate of an Insane Asylum, Says He Did Deed in Defense of Women's Virtue, Which He Declares Evangelist Criticized.

Springfield, Ill., Feb. 27.—Rev. A.
W. Sunday, better known as Billy Sunday, a former baseball player, who is now an evangelist, was horsewhipped by Sherman Potts, a religious fanatic, at the Sunday tabernacle, where, in the presence of 8,000 persons, he was conducting the opening meeting of a revival. The audience was on the verge of panic with women weeping and children screaming, while Potts and Sunday rolled and tumbled in an aisle, the evangelist vigorously returning the attack. Several men soon seized Potts. Mr. Sunday suffered several painful bruises from the buggy whip.

The prisoner, according to his statement at the jail, was once an inmate of the Jacksonville asylum, whence he was released as cured. He made the attack, he said, in defense of the virtue of women, which, he declared, had been criticized by the evangelist.

PRESIDENT STABBED.

Makes Ruling Displeasing to Many of the Union's Members.

Wheeling, W. Va., Feb. 27.—George Rush, president of the local union of the United Mine Workers of America at Bannock, O., near here, was probably fatally stabbed by Italian members of the union.

The local was holding a meeting when Rush made a ruling that displeased twenty-five or more Italians and in an instant Rush was the target for the stilettoes of several foreigners.
He was stabbed in several places.
American miners in attendance attacked the Italians and ejected them from the hall.

Against Statewide Prohibition.

Columbia, S. C., Feb. 27.—The senate decided against statewide prohibition by a vote of 30 to 9. The proposition bill, as sent over from the house, was amended out of all semblance to its original form and was then passed to third reading. The bill as passed by the senate provides that all dispensaries be closed on July 1, and that on July 15 an election be held in the "wet" counties to decide whether the sale of liquor under the present county dispensary law shall continue.
It is doubtful whether the house will accept this bill when it goes back for ratification.

Got on at El Paso.

Los Angeles, Cal., Feb. 27.—Federal officers discovered that the twenty-two contraband Chinese in a box car at San Luis Obispo, a few days ago, who boarded the car at El Paso, Tex., and not at New Orleans, as was at first given out. It is believed the band was smuggled across the Rio Grande river at El Paso and with the connivance of some railroad men obtained access to a bonded car. Investigation is now in progress in the El Paso district and arrests are likely to follow.
The Chinese have been examined by Commissioner Vandyke and ordered deported.

Student Shot to Death.

Maypearl, Tex., Feb. 27.—Four shots caused the death of J. A. Bell, twenty-seven years of age, on the premises of L. W. Thrash, a farmer, with whom Mr. Bell boarded. The wounds were inflicted by a double-barrel shotgun. Thrash, who is a married man about thirty-eight years of age, telephoned the circumstances to the authorities and gave himself into the custody of the constable.

Boys' Corn Clubs.

Denison, Feb. 27.—J. W. Butcher, an agent of the department of agriculture, has organized quite a number of boys' corn clubs in this county. Boys under twenty years of age are invited to join and interest themselves in the improvement of corn. Members of the clubs organized have agreed to plant small crops the coming season.

Eleven Counties Go "Dry."

Indianapolis, Feb. 27.—Eleven counties this week went "dry." The last few weeks elections have been held in twenty-five counties and only one voted "wet."

LAWMAKERS AT DALLAS.

Members of Legislature Guests of That City.

Dallas, Feb. 27.—A special train in two sections, of Pullman sleepers containing members of both branches of the legislature arrived over the Katy railway at 8 o'clock this morning.

They were met at the depot by a reception committee and many other citizens and a band and taken to the Oriental and Southland hotels, where they breakfasted.

The legislators, many of whom were accompanied by their wives and other relatives, were taken in automobiles over the city. Street cars were also utilized, and every visitor from the state capital took part in the tour.

The Dallas Golf and Country club was visited, where light refreshments were served. The party was next taken to the Columbian club, where a luncheon was enjoyed.

At 4 o'clock there was another luncheon, followed by a general reception.
At night the visitors were escorted to the Majestic theater and witnessed the evening's performance.

Hundreds of citizens assisted in entertaining the lawmakers and their families, and everything was done to contribute to their enjoyment.

Addresses of welcome were delivered by Mayor Hay, Commissioner Seay, Judge Yancey Lewis, Colonel J. T.
Trezevant and others. Lieutenant Governor Davidson for the senate and Speaker Kennedy for the house responded. These exercises were held at the Columbian club.

FORAKER BILL PASSES.

Garner and Hobson Clash, Latter Lauding Negroes.

Washington, Feb. 27.—The house fought out the Brownsville case and adopted the Foraker resolution by a party vote. The discussion was made notable by three fiery speeches by Senators Garner, Henry and Slayden of Texas. Henry said the resolution would let in negroes regardless of their guilt in shooting up Brownsville.

Mr. Slayden said it was a bonus on crime and a premium on infamy, and criticized Judge Taft for saying negroes are necessary to the development of the south.

Mr. Garner, in whose district the shooting occurred, set the Democrats wild with his speech, the only one he has made since he has been in congress. He told the house that when he protested against sending the negroes to Brownsville, General Oliver told him that these negro soldiers were not wanted anywhere, but it was Texas' time to take them. He paid a glowing tribute to the character of the citizens of Brownsville.

Congressman Hobson created a sensation by supporting the bill and lauding the negro soldiers.

Garner, Hobson and Madden had a bitter debate. At the close of Garner's speech he was congratulated for ten minutes.

In his speech Mr. Slayden declared that congress was seeking by this bill to set aside the most righteous act of the Roosevelt administration. Many speeches were made in the hour and a half allotted for debate.

RECORD SALES MADE.

February Transactions Greater Than Any Month of Any Year.

Houston, Feb. 27.—According to the Texas Cattle Raisers' association's advice land and cattle sales during February in Texas broke the record.
Several of the largest west Texas ranches were transferred together with stock. It is estimated 1,000,000 acres were disposed of the last few weeks in this state and 200,000 head of cattle, involving a total amount of $20,000,000.
A Denver firm alone is now spending $400,000 for cattle.

Confident Texas Will Win.

Austin, Feb. 27.—Chairman Storey, Engineer Parker and Expert Rate Clerk Arthur returned from St. Louis, where they have been attending the Texas rate hearing. Chairman Storey expressed himself as being confident Texas will win the case and that the interstate commerce commission will declare the new interstate rates unreasonable, in which event rates will have to be reduced. An abstract of all testimony offered is to be made by the commission and then briefs will follow. This was to be done by May 15.
The decision, however, is not expected until late in the fall. Assistant Attorney General Walthall also returned.

PATTERSON ON STAND.

Tells of Events in Connection With Letter.

Nashville, Feb. 27.—Proceedings in the Cooper-Sharp trial Saturday were opened by Attorney Garner further cross-examining T. Leigh Thompson, who was on the stand Friday when court adjourned.

When Mr. Thompson was asked if he saw anyone as he approached the scene of the tragedy immediately after Carmack was killed he stated he saw a group of people indistinctly, but it was too dark and smoky to recognize anyone until he reached the scene. The aim of the state was to show that it was impossible for the Coopers to recognize Senator Carmack nearly a block away or for John Sharp to see the tragedy in every detail from the corner of Union street and Seventh avenue, as he swore he did.

After the examination of Dr. Richard Dake, who ran to the scene of the tragedy immediately after the shooting and testified as to the position of

MALCOLM R. PATTERSON.

the body and finding the revolver near the right hand of the senator, and a number of other witnesses, Judge Anderson, for the defense, called for Governor Patterson to take the stand. A murmur ran over the room which, however, was suppressed.

Governor Patterson said he served as governor a term of two years and a month in the second. He said he saw Colonel Cooper the day of the killing; that it was the result of a telephone message from Mrs. Burch that he hunted up Cooper and found him at the Maxwell House. The state objected and the jury retired.

Governor Patterson then told what happened. "I found Colonel Cooper in the writing room writing a letter or dictating one. He told me to wait a minute. I sent for Attorney James Bradford and Robin Cooper. They arrived in a few minutes. Then I learned the letter Colonel Cooper had been dictating was to Mr. Carmack. I urged him strongly not to send it. So did Mr. Bradford and Robin agreed with us. Colonel Cooper was very angry.
He said he was a private citizen and the senator had no right to use his name, that he felt as though the man was spitting in his face each morning.
I told him if he sent that letter it might provoke an encounter—a personal encounter—which I told him must be avoided at all costs. The letter was turned over to Bradford, who promised to adjust the difficulty, and asked if Colonel Cooper would let him keep the letter and meet him at his (Bradford's) office at 3 o'clock. I then saw Mrs. Williamson and asked her if she would take luncheon with the colonel and she said yes. I told her it would be advisable for her to remain near the colonel until 3 o'clock.
I did so because I knew she was a good friend of his, and the colonel was very angry. I left then, as it was near noon, and Robin went with me up through the arcade. I told Robin if I was him I would remain near Colonel Cooper that day.

"Did you anticipate any trouble?"
"No, sir; for the letter the colonel wrote was unsigned, and in Mr. Bradford's possession."

"I was signing some bonds when Attorney Bradford phoned and said he had not seen the party we were speaking of, but General Tully Brown and he had discussed the case and decided there was no danger of trouble. I expressed by satisfaction. A few minutes later I phoned Bradford's office and asked Colonel Cooper to come to the mansion within thirty minutes."

"Did you wish to see him about this trouble?"

"No, sir; Colonel Cooper is one of my closest advisers. I was going away that day and wished to see him before I left."

The governor said he walked out of the mansion with one of his staff and met Governor Cox. They chatted while the governor reentered the mansion. After a little while Porter came in and told him of the killing.

Immense Damage Results.

Philadelphia, Feb. 27.—A fire which broke out in the eight story building of the funeral supply company of Paxton & Comfort, at 529 Arch street, did damage amounting to about $300,000. The building was completely flooded from top to bottom, as was also the Oxford book bindery.

BRYAN, TEXAS, FEBRUARY 28, 09

The club women of San Antonio think the constitution of Texas is too little a thing to stand in the way of their getting what they want.

Dick Outcault, the creator of Buster Brown, says the comic supplement must go. We can only hope that this is not another of the great humorist's jokes.

A Belton woman has discovered a connecting link between George Washington and Carrie Nation—the hatchet. Phoebe! what wonders investigation do unfold.

The man qualified to vote in the primary tomorrow who fails to do his duty will have no right to complain, no matter who are elected or what is done. "Speak now or forever hold your peace."

There are officeholders in Texas who couldn't earn $500 a year in an honest private business, yet they are howling because $2500 or $3900 is not sufficient to pay their expenses while holding public office.

Since congress found out that Ted the Terrible is only a blustering bully and that the big suck is a stuffed club it is giving it to him good and plenty. The only wonder is how he played the game so long without getting found out.

Mr. Bryan has unequivocally and emphatically said that he does not desire another nomination for the presidency and would accept it only in the improbable event that the people again called on him to be their leader. This is all he ought to say and the fact that he is still misrepresented and criticized only serves to show how truly great he is and how his enemies fear him.

MASONS ATTENTION.

There will be a called meeting tomorrow (Monday) night at eight o'clock. Work in the Entered Apprentice degree and a full attendance of the members is desired. O. E. Saunders, W. M.

over the matter he compromised with them for the sum of $1,000.

LITERATURE IN THE SCHOOLS.

Supt. Lawson Writes Entertainingly on This and Other Subjects.

To the Patrons:—
It is my purpose to cultivate a taste for good literature in the schools.

A course of the best works of the best writers was placed in all the grades last year, and will continue to be used.

Children should be given the enjoyment of such a course in the lower grades, and it was a matter of surprise to me to find that it had been overlooked so long in the Bryan schools.

Among leading educators, there is no difference of opinion on this subject.

Not only did I place this subject in our regular course of study, but I put it in the list of subjects for our City Institute, that a clear and concise method of the presentation might be gone over with the teachers.

The opinions of such thinkers as Chubb and DeGarmo were carefully considered in order that teachers might give their pupils as much pleasure and profit as possible.

The high school morning openings, in the new auditorium on Tuesdays, Wednesdays, and Thursdays, are literary treats. They are lead by Prof.
Kinnard, and are in harmony with the idea of literary enjoyment which I am trying to make general in the schools.

The teachers in the various grades are doing the same thing, and the pupils are beginning to realize that medals and prizes are false educational ideas. In keeping with this idea of literary appreciation, was the recent Longfellow Entertainment given by Miss Ada Board and her sixth grade pupils. Everything said and represented had a direct bearing on the idea of literary appreciation.

Miss Board carried out the idea beautifully and successfully. All grades above the fifth were present, and quite a number of the good people of Bryan were there to show their interest in the progress of the pupils.

In this connection, I may also state that wrong use of memory retards our work in placing the schools on a higher plane.

Memory has its proper place, and it should be used properly. The damage comes not in use of memory, but in its abuse. The old mediaeval idea was to substitute memory for other faculties. That idea substituted authority for reason, and hung medals and prizes at the end of the line. Examinations were memory tests. China has that system yet, hence the backwardness of China. Just as China has failed to measure up with strong nations, so will your child fail to measure up with other pupils in higher grades, if he is taught to use verbal memory where he ought to think clearly.

I am moved to make these remarks because examination is approaching, and it will not consist of memory tests where thinking is necessary. It is not so much WHAT they do, as HOW they do it. That is why I urge the duty of subjects, reasoning, and the constant application of the knowledge gained, more than mere repetition and imagination.

Just here, I want to say, that much home study by children, too often results in memorizing things they do not understand, and too much help—so much carrying them that they do not learn to stand alone.

This leaves out of consideration the additional fact that growing children need rest and relaxation, and that parents and teachers should not move excessive demands on them.

I want to add, that I would not hitch a young colt to a heavy log-wagon, nor a young child to heavy school work. In either case arrested development results somewhere along the line, and, in either case, load or team will almost invariably be left behind somewhere.

In bringing about these changes which I consider to be for the best interests of the schools, I am trying to make myself felt, rather than seen.

I am trying to be to every teacher a courteous and considerate director, rather than an exacting taskmaster.
The teachers are responding nobly, and the schools are improving.

In the further improvement of the schools, and curing ailments due in a large measure to causes which I have mentioned, I ask the cordial assistance of the people of Bryan.

Respectfully,
W. C. LAWSON,
Supt. City Schools.

McNEELEY-CONWAY.

Popular Young Bryan Couple United in Marriage Last Night.

Mr. W. W. McNeeley and Miss Helen Conway were quietly married at 8:30 o'clock last night at the Baptist parsonage, Dr. M. E. Weaver, the pastor, officiating.

They took snap judgement on their many friends, not letting them into their secret, and left the home of the bride presumably to go to the Cozy theater, but instead went straight to hymen's altar. However all has been freely forgiven and they are receiving the hearty congratulations of their friends. Mr. Lock McNeeley, brother of the groom, and Miss Willie Mae Brockman, cousin of the bride, accompanied them and were the only witnesses to the ceremony besides the family of the officiating minister.

The bride is a niece of Mrs. McDuff Simpson and has made her home with Mrs. Simpson since the death of her parents. She is a young lady of many personal charms, refined, gracious in disposition, and possessing those christian graces and traits of mind and heart that fit her to be the queen of the home.

The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs.
J. W. McNeeley of Cedar Point, Texas, but has made his home in Bryan for several years. He is an industrious young mechanic, a young man of sterling worth and high moral character.

BUSINESS LEAGUE RESOLUTIONS

At a meeting of the Business League of Bryan Texas, the following resolution was adopted:

Whereas, There has been introduced in the Legislature a bill authorizing the creation of Improvement Districts for the improvement of streams etc., to prevent overflow;

And Whereas, There are large bodies of valuable farming lands subject to the periodical overflows of the rivers of Texas, the cultivation of which is not only hazardous but almost impossible under existing conditions;

And Whereas, The protection of said lands, would be beneficial to the whole state, by increasing the values and productiveness thereof;

And Whereas, Such bill has been through the active efforts of the Honorable Watson, Terrell, Alexander and Meachum passed by the Senate and now awaits the action of the House;

Therefore, Be it resolved that we earnestly petition and urge the passage of this bill at the earliest possible time to the end that such districts may be organized and work commenced as soon as possible.

Resolved, Further that these resolutions be signed by all members of the League present and a copy forwarded by the Secretary to our representative in the legislature and to Hon. Buchanan of Washington county.

Signed,
G. S. PARKER,
and 59 other Citizens.

Laws Regarding Life

Insurance Companies

There is a great deal of discussion just now in regards to Texas insurance laws and I want you to know just how the Southwestern stands in regard to such legislation. And right at the start I want to say that I have full faith that the legislature of Texas will give us the very best insurance laws. The Southwestern wants the insurance laws of Texas to be the very best in the United States from the standpoint of the policy holder. This means that no company shall be permitted to do business in Texas, either home companies or foreign companies, which through schemes, unsafe investments, improper reserves or otherwise shall defraud the people of Texas. We want the Seal of Texas on an insurance company to mean that that company absolutely protects its policy holders. Insure in the Southwestern Life Insurance Company and keep Texas money in Texas.

Recent news items from Oklahoma announce that the foreign companies will likely withdraw from Oklahoma if certain pending laws are enacted. Recently a representative of one of the foreign companies made the statement in Austin that if certain laws are enacted the outside companies now doing business in Texas will likely quit Texas.
Those who have policies in the companies now out of the state know the inconvenience they are often put to in paying their premiums, and many beneficiaries have had considerable inconvenience in making proofs of death.
Many an agent suffered severe financial loss when his company withdrew from the state two years ago.

SEE JOE B. REED and have him write some insurance on your life. He will explain so you will understand what you get and help you pay the premium and see that the beneficiary is paid promptly—generally within three days from date of proof of death.

THE WEATHER.

Tonight and Sunday unsettled weather. Colder tonight.—Cline.

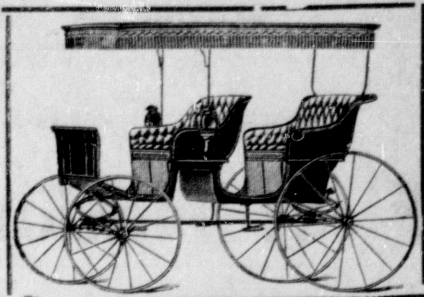

Weather Notes.

Galveston, Feb. 26th.—The disturbance central yesterday over Montana has moved eastward to Minnesota with axis extending southward to the upper Rio Grande. It has been attended by light rain or snow in northern tier of states and is of feeble energy. Elsewhere the weather has been fair, increasing cloudiness over southern districts. An area of high pressure covers east Gulf and south Atlantic states, and light to heavy frosts have occurred on the east Gulf coast and in northern Florida. A second area of high pressure overlies districts west of the Rocky Mountains but it caused only a nominal fall in temperature in the Plateau and Rocky mountain region. In Texas and the plains states and eastward to the Appalachian mountains it is much warmer. At time of report the temperature in this state ranged from 32 degrees at Amarillo to 60 degrees at Galveston.

Musical.
Mrs. Freda Grosberger entertained with a delightful musicale Saturday afternoon at four o'clock, naming as her guest of honor, Mrs. Seelig of Helena, Arkansas, who is visiting her sister Mrs. Sam Levy.

Those who were fortunate enough to be Mrs. Grosberger's guests, found a rare treat in the classical music so beautifully rendered on this occasion.
Punch and bon bons were handed during the program, as a finale, fruit gelatine with whipped cream and cake were served. Upon each plate was a card for a musical contest.

Old familiar airs were played by Miss Berryman and a picture, "The Mus-s" was presented to Mr. Techau for displaying the greatest skill in recalling to memory these dear old familiar airs.

Following is the program, with which Mrs. Grosberger charmed her guests:

A charming hospitality of Friday afternoon was the brilliant forty-two party given at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Myers, by Mesdames J. A. Myers, W. A. Withers and R. R.
Myers, complimentary to the Week End club. The spacious reception suite of this home is ideally adapted to entertaining and on this occasion it was exceptionally lovely with its effective floral ornamentation. The hall where the guests were received by Mesdames J. A. Myers and Withers was handsomely decorated with Southern smilax and the newel posts of the stairway were occupied by handsome foliage plants. No attempt was made to maintain a uniform color plan and the harmonious intermingling of the bright hues of numerous choice flowers produced an "indescrittably" beautiful effect. White and pink carnations contributed color and fragrance and the large parlors where the guests were received by Mesdames, E. J. Kyle and R. R. Myers, presented a garden like aspect. These same pretty decorations were carried out in the handsome dining room.
Twelve tables accommodated the forty-two players. The dainty and exquisite score cards were tiny bisque doll pin cushions, the score being kept by the use of pearl headed pins.
At the close of the four very interesting games, the dominoes were removed, lunch cloths spread and a most tempting salad course followed.

Mrs. S. H. Dunlap was hostess to the Embroidery club on Tuesday afternoon at three o'clock. This charming household bears a reputation for delightful entertaining. Everywhere in this pretty home was seen the artistic hand of Mrs. Dunlap, especially in the arrangement of the handsome pot plants. The genial hospitality of this home was evidenced on this occasion by the general good cheer that prevailed during the hours devoted to the exchange of pleasantries and the execution of pretty hand work that forms the diversion of this popular club. Ever the close of the afternoon the hostess served a delightful menu.

SOUR STOMACH

Is an Almost Certain Sign of Acute Indigestion.

If you occasionally have a taste of sour food in your mouth, it surely shows that the food you are eating is not being digested, but instead, is fermenting and giving out poisonous gases.

Belching of gas is a common symptom at such times, and also that lump of lead feeling, as if your stomach was carrying a much greater load than it could stand.

If you prompt relief and permanent cure, go to E. J. Jenkins and get a large tin box of Mi-o-na tablets for 50 cents.

E. J. Jenkins knows that Mi-o-na is a highly recommended scientific remedy, and that is why he is ready to return your money if it fails to cure acid stomach, belching of gas, dizziness, biliousness, sick headache, foul breath, and all stomach troubles.
